

November 16, 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rhineland District Library Presents This is Your Democracy: A Citizen's Guide to the Town Budget meeting

November 21, 2016, 6:00p, Library Meeting Room

The Rhineland District Library is pleased to host Oneida County UW-Extension agent Myles Alexander and his presentation: This is Your Democracy: A Citizen's Guide to the Town Budget meeting at 6pm on November 21. In the workshop, participants will learn about the Wisconsin Town Budget meeting and how it is different from regular board meetings and the Town Annual meeting, what it means to be an elector in a town, understand the meeting structure, and how to fully participate as a speaker and voter in the meeting. “We want to take our responsibility to democracy seriously, but sometimes the rules are overwhelming and we don’t feel we understand our role,” says Alexander. “Voting residents in Wisconsin Towns have a great responsibility and opportunity to shape their Town budget. We take it for granted. In this workshop you will learn how to be an effective participant and celebrate the great Wisconsin tradition of the Town annual budget meeting.”

For more information please call the Rhineland District Library, 715-365-1070.

For More information contact:

Virginia Roberts, Library Director

715-365-1070

director@rhinelandlibrary.org